EYFS: How Can We Explore 3D Materials?

<< Back to the EYFS and SEND Curriculum Collection page<<

The world is full of materials, waiting to be transformed by our hands, hearts and heads.

Giving children plenty of opportunity to explore materials through free exploration, ungoverned by our expectations of “outcome”, is vital if we are to help build experience of what it is possible to create.

The resources below help enable an open-ended exploration of materials using construction and modelling techniques, whilst developing dexterity and imagination skills.
